b7C [REDACTED] complained about the continuing harrassment of the gambling industry and particularly the Desert Inn Hotel by IRS and FBI Agents. Informant advised on 7/11/63, that on this date [REDACTED] for JOHN FACTOR, landlord of the Stardust Hotel. FACTOR has recently given the Desert Inn group an option to purchase the Stardust Hotel. One of the provisions connected with this option is that a two million dollar loan which FACTOR secured from the Teamster Pension Fund in Chicago is to be made available to the Desert Inn Hotel group for construction of an addition to the Stardust Hotel. The Teamsters Fund has still not come up with the two million dollars, and [REDACTED] theorized that the threatened investigation of the fund in Chicago may possibly affect this loan. He stated [REDACTED]

Informant advised on 7/12/63, that on this date [redacted] met at the Desert Inn Hotel with [redacted]. They were both very critical of the recent activities of [redacted]. They recognized the fact that [redacted]

He is not realistic as far as the financial condition of the hotel is concerned, and he apparently does not want anyone else to know about the true financial picture at the hotel. [REDACTED] stated that the whole hotel operation was going to have to be reorganized; that they are going to continue to operate successfully. He advised that RUBY KOLOD and [REDACTED] are sitting down in the casino and making policy and neither one of them has sufficient background or knowledge to be attempting to run anything except the casino. [REDACTED] stated RUBY KOLOD is getting old and is bitter and [REDACTED] is "crazy."

Wilbur Clark, President and nominal head of Wilbur Clark's Desert Inn, Las Vegas, has been in very poor health and earlier this month was taken to Scripps Clinic in La Jolla, California, where he was to be examined for an internal bleeding difficulty. While Clark was being examined, he suffered a serious heart attack and was to be confined to the clinic for several weeks. According to our informant (microphone surveillance in Desert Inn office of Morris Barney Dalitz), there has been permanent damage to Clark's heart and any subsequent attack will probably be fatal.

Clark has recently been engaged in attempting to obtain a 5½ million dollar loan from the Teamsters Union Pension Fund, with which he hopes to construct a high-rise apartment building in Las Vegas.

His associates have tried to discourage him as they feel the Federal authorities will investigate Clark in the same manner as they are now investigating Dalitz. Clark has, however, been adamant in his insistence on going ahead as he feels the apartment building will be a continuing monument to his name and will be something for people to remember him by after he is gone.

b7C [REDACTED] is very much concerned as to the feeling of MORRIS BARNEY DALITZ who had previously instructed [REDACTED] stated he wanted DALITZ to talk to "this fellow in New York." He is of the opinion that this individual, who is possibly [REDACTED], can explain the situation to DALITZ and make it sound better than if [REDACTED] explains the situation to DALITZ. [REDACTED] advised that [REDACTED] is very confident that under the present circumstances [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] was not desirous that DALITZ be furnished his opinion regarding this matter at the present time. [REDACTED] is still somewhat apprehensive that GARFIELD may get involved "in some shady deal or say something that will start this thing all over again."

Informant advised on 7/31/63 that on this date [REDACTED] was in contact with DALITZ who was at that time in Venice, Italy. DALITZ indicated he intends to return to the United States on 8/20/63. [REDACTED] was somewhat surprised that DALITZ was in Venice since previous indications were that he was going to Athens, Greece, and some of his mail had been forwarded to Athens by [REDACTED]. Informant advised that [REDACTED] in the incident. This will include [REDACTED] RUBY KOLOD (hotel executive) as well as other hotel employees.

LV 92-461

Informant advised [redacted] who has previously checked hotel premises for technical installations was in contact with hotel officials and indicated he intended to arrive in Las Vegas either on this date or 8/1/63.

Informant furnished no pertinent information on 8/1-2-3-4-5/63.

b7c Informant advised on 8/6/63 that [redacted] for the past year has been [redacted] has indicated he intends to resign his position. [redacted] intends to accept a position with a hotel in Reno, Nevada. [redacted] and [redacted] are disturbed that [redacted] is quitting without giving adequate notice; however, they feel that his work has been "slacking off" particularly as it related to the recent racial incidents involving the hotels. [redacted] advised the informant he had been in contact with [redacted] and [redacted] and that they have agreed that there was a need for the association and that the organization should be continued. [redacted] has an individual in mind to replace [redacted] and this person has apparently been working for the hotels in a capacity not known to the general public. [redacted] and others feel that unless they can secure the services of a strong executive to take over [redacted] position, that the hotels will "be at the mercy of everyone." The person who is selected for the job will have to have good contacts with local and state officials.

Informant advised that the Mc Guire Sisters had been booked into the Desert Inn for four weeks beginning 8/6/63; however, the hotel was contacted by their manager who advised that one of the sisters was sick and they would be unable to keep this engagement.

Informant advised that WILBUR CLARK, President of the Desert Inn Hotel, is now out of the hospital where he was recuperating from a heart attack. CLARK has been instructed by his doctors to "take it easy" or he will possibly suffer a recurrence of the attack.

b7C [redacted] and [redacted] are disturbed because CLARK has undertaken various independent building projects in Las Vegas and they are of the opinion that these projects will undoubtedly be connected in the public's mind to the Desert Inn Hotel. [redacted] pointed out that he is not opposed to this activity; however, DALITZ, MORRIS KLEINMAN and the other principal owners are opposed to CLARK's many independent ventures. CLARK made the observation that if DALITZ is opposed to his activities that he can buy CLARK "out of the hotel."

WEEKLY SUMMARY

b2 [redacted] furnished the following information on the dates indicated:

b7c On 8/7/63, [redacted] and [redacted] met at the Desert Inn Hotel and a discussion was had concerning DALITZ. [redacted] the Desert Inn. [redacted] observed that he did not think [redacted] was any more deserving of [redacted] than any of the other men and that just because DALITZ liked [redacted] this did not give him the right to give [redacted] over some of the other men in the Desert Inn.

[redacted] told [redacted] that MORRIS KLEINMAN would probably arrive in Las Vegas about 8/12/63. He also informed [redacted] that [redacted] had done quite a few favors for the hotel and that he had, therefore, taken [redacted] and his family to dinner and a show. He said that [redacted] appeared to enjoy himself and showed his appreciation.

On 8/7/63, [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] met at the Desert Inn Hotel at which time a discussion was had concerning the hiring of Negroes. [REDACTED] told [REDACTED] that at the previous meeting at the Sahara Hotel, [REDACTED] b7C [REDACTED] stating that he has certain qualifications which he does not feel most of the Negroes can meet. [REDACTED] also observed that he did not feel NEGROES were qualified as dealers, and [REDACTED] stated he did not think this particular point was brought up at the meeting. [REDACTED] also said that he feels [REDACTED] should leave this point alone (concerning the dealers) unless it comes up. [REDACTED] also said the Desert Inn would not fire anybody in order to place a Negro in employment there and that they would not lower their standards.

[REDACTED] before being promoted to certain positions and that the examinations would cover waiters and waitresses. [REDACTED] said he was going to have a man sit on the examining board who used to be a dining car waiter and was well acquainted with this business. [REDACTED] said that he felt the hotels were in a very good position at the present time with the people on the West side (this expression refers to a Negro residential area in Las Vegas,) and that it is the "professionals" who want to press that position but that they could not even gather enough people for the demonstration march.

On 8/7/63, [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] again met at the Desert Inn and talked about [REDACTED] (at the Stardust.) Conversation between these two concerning [REDACTED] indicated that [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] do not approve of this. They felt that [REDACTED] is getting too old and not doing his job as well as he should - not staying in the lounge where he belonged. [REDACTED] is MILTON JAFFE.

Mention is made of [redacted] at Desert Inn) shooting craps in the Desert Inn, and the fact that this does not look good. [redacted] stated that he would talk to [redacted] about this.

[redacted] and [redacted] then started discussing a trip that [redacted] is contemplating and [redacted] states that they (indicating the people who are going on the trip) are going to switch from going to Van Couver, B.C., to Seattle, Washington. [redacted] apparently takes an annual trip to the Van Couver - Seattle area with the same people.) [redacted] mentions that they will see a [redacted] who has a large yacht on which they will probably spend a couple of days and that he is telling [redacted] this, but does not want [redacted] to tell anybody else where he is staying. [redacted] asked specifically where [redacted] would stay and [redacted] said the [redacted] (phonetic). [redacted] mentioned that he had [redacted] had been there. [redacted] also instructed [redacted] that if he should get any calls, particularly from New York, he does not want them to call him direct, but that [redacted] should pass the message on to him and he would call them back. [redacted] tells [redacted] that what he should do is tell [redacted] (phonetic) to call [redacted] if anything comes up.

67C The conversation between [redacted] and [redacted] then switches to the conditions of [redacted]

[redacted] that there are just certain states that he can go into and remain, but that he can pass through any of them. [redacted] said that he did have to pass through Seattle anyway and that he can always state that he was in transit.

The conversation between these two then turns to the Desert Inn and their observations that the Desert Inn is the leader in the gaming industry and they felt that the other hotels waited to make their move until after seeing which way the Desert Inn had chosen.

At a subsequent meeting on 8/7/63, between [redacted] and [redacted] is informed by [redacted] that RUBY KOLOD is staying at Del Mar, California.

On 8/7/63, [redacted] and [redacted] had a discussion concerning the detection of "bugs" (obviously referring to hidden microphones.)

[redacted] at Stardust Hotel) told him he had a machine that would detect bugs which he has purchased himself. [redacted] that he had informed [redacted] that he shouldn't have done this, but that he Desert Inn would have purchased it and permitted [redacted] to have it. [redacted] also related that he told [redacted] that he did not think this was the same type of equipment that [redacted] has and that he should probably check with [redacted] concerning this.

[redacted] continued it did not seem logical that "they" have it at the Fremont and the Sands and do not have a bug in here some place. The conversation is not too clear, but apparently [redacted] told [redacted] that he had instructed [redacted] to work directly under [redacted] and [redacted] and report only to them and not nose any information around that he might discover. [redacted] also states that there is a certain element that they have to trust but that they always have to be very careful; to which [redacted] agrees. They then make reference to the fact that [redacted] is a fine man, but both alluded to his previous [redacted] and one of [redacted] comments was, [redacted]

On 8/7/63, [redacted] advised informant that [redacted] has returned from his vacation in Hawaii.

On 8/8/63, informant met with [redacted] at the Desert Inn, at which time [redacted] received a telephone call from an unknown individual who is informed by [redacted] that [redacted] is not here but that he is on vacation in Hawaii.

On 8/8/63, informant met with MORRIS KLEINMAN and [redacted] at the Desert Inn, at which time KLEINMAN tells [redacted] about some insurance stock that he bought from JOHN FACTOR. KLEINMAN said FACTOR had sold him some stock for $20.00, and told him he would get at least $100.00 a share for it. KLEINMAN bought 3,000 shares at a total cost of $60,000.00. This stock was subsequently sold for $300,000.00 for a capital gains profit of $240,000.00.

KLEINMAN then refers to some difficulty FACTOR was involved in attempting to get his citizenship papers and the Government had asked him about this particular deal. FACTOR apparently told the Government that he had told KLEINMAN at the time of the original sale that he would buy the stock back for $100.00 a share, thereby making this a transaction wherein KLEINMAN would have a guaranteed profit. KLEINMAN stated that [REDACTED] had told him not to discuss this matter with [REDACTED] but that he wanted to as it had been preying on his mind.

KLEINMAN stated he did not know of the difficulty of the stock until FACTOR came to Las Vegas, with his brother-in-law who is the [REDACTED]. He was also informed by [REDACTED] that KLEINMAN was going to have to claim this profit as regular income rather than as a capital gain as he had already done.

b7C Because of these events [REDACTED] had supposedly been attempting to work out a deal wherein KLEINMAN would get some more stock at $20.00 a share in order to pay for his loss of the capital gains, but KLEINMAN now learns that [REDACTED] apparently has talked to [REDACTED] further concerning this and this apparently has fallen through.

[REDACTED] remarks that he was not told of this particular matter and also observed that there are a lot of things "around here" that he has not been told about.

KLEINMAN points out that it is a question as to whether a statement by FACTOR constituted a guarantee, and he states that he cannot understand how FACTOR could tell anybody he sold the stock for $20.00 with the understanding he would buy it back for $100.00, when there was no such understanding. KLEINMAN stated he believes this was merely an expression of opinion.

[REDACTED] then enters the presence of KLEINMAN and [REDACTED] and KLEINMAN immediately questions [REDACTED] concerning what [REDACTED] had told him about this stock deal with FACTOR. [REDACTED] states that he does not know what FACTOR said concerning this matter and that all he knew was what [REDACTED] had told him and what he had told KLEINMAN. [REDACTED] stated he did not inquire further into the issue because he did not want to get involved and that this particular matter had been mentioned to him by [REDACTED] while they were discussing a number of other things, and this was apparently just mentioned in passing.

[redacted] observed that [redacted] plays both sides and also observed that he is not rated in the lawyer's book.

MORRIS KLEINMAN stated that he, referring to [redacted] does a good job of representing these people in Chicago. [redacted] stated that [redacted] was possibly in this and both [redacted] and KLEINMAN spoke derogatorily of [redacted]

On 8/9/63, informant advised that [redacted] (at Desert Inn) told [redacted] had heard from DALITZ and that he was leaving Athens, Greece, 8/17/63, and would stay in New York for a few days before coming home.

b7c [redacted] telephoned [redacted] in Los Angeles, and discussed the money whup lease at the Stardust Hotel which at present is $3,000.00 behind on payments and mentions that [redacted] wants to get them out.

[redacted] met with [redacted] at the Desert Inn and discussed the replacement for [redacted] at the Desert Inn Golf Course. [redacted] mentions that no release has been made to the newspapers and they do not know how the information leaked out that [redacted] was being considered as [redacted] replacement.

[redacted] mentions to [redacted] that [redacted] had received a letter from DALITZ and that [redacted] was coming on to Las Vegas, but that DALITZ was staying in New York for a few days. [redacted] inquired as to whether "they" could give him a subpoena when he gets back and [redacted] response to this question was not heard by the informant.

[redacted] states that DALITZ may call TUCKER and advise TUCKER where he is staying in New York.

[redacted] left the Desert Inn at about 1:35 p.m. en route to the airport to board a plane for San Diego, California.

Informant furnished no pertinent information on 8/10, 11, 12/63.

On 8/13/63, [redacted] and [redacted] met at the Desert Inn Hotel, during which time [redacted] received a call from [redacted] most of which conversation is not pertinent. [redacted] informed [redacted] that DALITZ would be in New York, on the 17th, and was going to stay there a couple of days before coming on home. [redacted] then talks with [redacted] and this is apparently done so that [redacted] can give instructions to [redacted] and no pertinent conversation was noted.

[redacted] that DALITZ should leave Italy on the 17th, and be in Las Vegas, on the 20th, and when he gets back they should schedule a meeting with DALITZ, KLEINMAN, KOLOB, TUCKER, [redacted] and the rest to discuss the building problem and where the [redacted] is going to come from in order to finish it. [redacted] also tells [redacted] that SAM TUCKER wants to send in a [redacted] (phonetic) to head a department having control of their supervision of the parking lot, porters, and kitchen help. [redacted] believes that TUCKER has discussed this with DALITZ and on TUCKER's recommendation, DALITZ is willing to give this man a try. [redacted] observes that TUCKER's recommendation is worth a million to DALITZ.

On 8/13/63, a [redacted] met with [redacted] at the Desert Inn, at which time they discuss a city ordinance that prevents the Stardust from having wild animals housed behind their establishment, said animals apparently being tigers that are part of a possible future act. [redacted] mentions to [redacted] that he has worked out a fairly good deal with [redacted], and that [redacted] has been calling Washington, D.C., at the Desert Inn's expense, getting clearances for performers when this was needed on an expedite basis, for replacements.

On 8/14/63, informant advised that MORRIS KLEINMAN and [redacted] met at the Desert Inn. [redacted] inquired as to when RUBY ROSS was returning, and KLEINMAN stated he thought he would be back Friday. [redacted] said the reason he needed to know was that he had to get a [redacted]

KLEINMAN starts talking about [redacted] and that [redacted] was his man and he was the first person to give [redacted] a chance; however, KLEINMAN said that he thought [redacted] was getting too much money and that they should have started him at a much lower salary, and let him work his way up. KLEINMAN felt that DALITZ should have asked his advise before setting this salary.

On 8/14/63, [REDACTED] received a telephone call from DALITZ, and during the conversation [REDACTED] mentioned that [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] are with the Crosby (phonetic) subjects this week and that they are in Seattle now. [REDACTED] mentioned that he would be able to reach them if DALITZ desired. [REDACTED] mentioned that business had not been too good lately but felt that it would pick up fairly soon. [REDACTED] then is apparently repeating what DALITZ is saying to him and recording same, and he is heard to say "Hilton Hotel in Athens, Greece. Thursday afternoon or Friday morning. About four days." [REDACTED] is staying at the Olympic Hotel in Seattle, but that he intends going aboard someone's boat and journeying on to Van Courer. [REDACTED] said that [REDACTED] went with [REDACTED] (phonetic), the same old group.

b7C [REDACTED] then asked DALITZ if he intended stopping over in New York, and he must have received a negative response for he then added "then you aren't going to stop over in New York." and then stated that he felt this was better, coming directly to Las Vegas.

[REDACTED] received a telephone call on 8/14/63, from an unknown individual and mentioned to this person that he had been drinking last night with [REDACTED] but there was not sufficient conversation concerning [REDACTED] to further identify him.

WILBUR CLARK met with [REDACTED] on 8/14/63, and [REDACTED] informed CLARK of the fact that DALITZ would be home in four days. [REDACTED] also discusses with CLARK the fact that the Desert Inn [REDACTED] as a pre to take [REDACTED] place, and CLARK apparently has some reservations concerning this possibility because [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] mentions that everybody is gone, specifically mentioning [REDACTED] that KOLOD left the day after [REDACTED] left, that [REDACTED] were at Del Mar, and that [REDACTED] was with them.

CLARK mentions an individual whose name could not be heard in connection with some money this individual owes him. CLARK said he doubted that he would ever get his money back and b7C that it was his own fault. [REDACTED] said that he does not pay anybody. CLARK then stated to [REDACTED] that he had a note on him for $15,000.00, and that he did not imagine that that Hotel is paying out too good either up there on the Strip. CLARK mentioned that the Hotel was on this person's land.

On 8/15/63, MORRIS KLEINMAN and [REDACTED] met at the Desert Inn Hotel, at which time [REDACTED] informed KLEINMAN that [REDACTED] would be back on Sunday, and there is general conversation between the two of them about young SINATRA going to work for the Sands Hotel.

Dalitz has for years been the dominant figure in the operation of the Desert Inn and Stardust Hotels in Las Vegas. During the past year he has turned over active management duties to [REDACTED] the Desert Inn, while he himself has spent much of his time traveling in Europe. b7c Dalitz has had an 81-foot, ocean-going yacht constructed in Norway at a cost of approximately $125,000 and which would have allegedly cost $300,000 if built in the United States. Dalitz reportedly plans to leave this vessel in Mediterranean waters for several years, after which it will be brought to Acapulco, Mexico, where he now has a smaller yacht, the Stardust, berthed at the Acapulco Yacht Club.

Recently completed in Acapulco is a residence which Dalitz had constructed at a cost of approximately $100,000. Legal Attache, Mexico, has obtained photographs of this residence which were taken just prior to occupancy by Dalitz's wife, from whom he is presently separated, and their small daughter. These photographs are attached.

This is for your information.

DALITZ has indicated in contacts with Agents that his wife got the house as part of the divorce settlement.

During recent weeks, DALITZ has spent most of his time in Las Vegas, and since he is now separated from his wife it is not expected that he will spend any appreciable amount of time in the Acapulco area. His large yacht, the "Moby Dick" is still believed to be in Europe; however, he has stated he intends to bring this boat to this country, and he may dock it initially in Mexico.

Several months ago he purchased a seagoing yacht, which has since been docked in Europe. Since that time, he has spent a large percentage of his time in Europe aboard this yacht.

Las Vegas sources have indicated that DALITZ has evidenced a diminishing interest in the operation of the Desert Inn and Stardust Hotels, Las Vegas. In 1963, he notified other owners that he wanted to sell his interests and completely disassociate himself from the management of the hotels. While he has not done this, he has spent only a small percentage of his time in Las Vegas during the past year. Also, his prior responsibilities have been delegated, at least in part, to [REDACTED] of the hotel, and other hotel executives. It is noted he has only been in Las Vegas one day since February, 1964.

During the period DALITZ has been a subject, no information has been developed indicating he is violating any law coming within the purview of the FBI. In fact, he has stated that he has plenty of money and would be foolish in this stage of his life to get himself involved in anything of an illegal nature. In view of the above, this case is being placed in a P* status in the Las Vegas office. It will be made pending in six months, at which time a current report will be submitted and further determination will be made at that time as to whether additional investigation is warranted.

b7C Recd of SA [REDACTED] dated 11-10-64 at Las Vegas.

Cover pages of referenced report stated that this matter was being placed in a closed status in view of the fact that subject has a diminishing interest in the operation of the Desert Inn and Stardust Hotels in Las Vegas and has delegated many of his responsibilities. In addition it is noted that subject has been absent from the Las Vegas area on extended tours including the European area.

The Bureau does not approve the closing of this matter in view of the fact that subject has long been one of the top hoodlums directing Las Vegas operations and allegedly may be the front for various other top hoodlums throughout the United States and elsewhere. You should continue to investigate his activities in accordance with current instructions.

NOTE: Dalitz is a top leader of the hoodlum element and while he has accumulated extensive wealth and does not appear to be participating in the day to day operations of his Las Vegas holdings, it is noted he continues to make his headquarters in Las Vegas and allegedly is in close contact with numerous national and international hoodlums such as Meyer Lansky, Doc Statcher, Sam Giacana and others. It appears desirable to continue an active investigation on Dalitz's activities.

During this contact, GORDON delivered funds in the amount of $58,900 to SCALISH, which represented money from the Desert Inn and possibly other casinos in Las Vegas. [REDACTED] that Rancho La Costa, Inc., located on Santa Del Mar Road, Carlsbad, California, had made application for a liquor license and in so doing the corporation produced certain corporation records. Carlsbad, California, is located generally in the area of San Diego, California.

A review of such records discloses a Las Vegas group has acquired a large holding of land in the Carlsbad area. They have already completed the building of a golf course on this land, are finishing the course club house and will thereafter further develop the large acreage through the building of homes.

[REDACTED] advised the initial cost of the project was estimated at $350,000,000 but that the estimated cost is now expected to reach $500,000,000.00.

The available records reflect the land is owned by Rancho La Costa, Inc., a Nevada corporation; Lofty, Inc., a Nevada corporation; Planet, Inc., a California corporation, with an address of 953-32 East Sahara Avenue, Las Vegas, Nevada.

Records reflect the Rancho La Costa project is listed as having one stockholder, namely the Star Investment Company owning one thousand shares. This company is composed of a partnership consisting of the following persons with percentage of ownership noted after respective names:

MERVYN ADELSON, 32 Country Club Lane, Las Vegas, 35.625 per cent

IRWIN A. MOLASKY, 43 Country Club Lane, Las Vegas, 23.750 per cent

HARRY R. LAHR, 1807 South Sixth Street, Las Vegas, 5. per cent

M. B. DALITZ, Desert Inn, Las Vegas, 23.750 per cent

BERNARD ROTHKOPF, 341 Desert Inn Road, Las Vegas, 11.875 per cent.

LV 92-461

The land in question has now been used as collateral on a promissory note of $4,000,000 giving trust deed to Trustees of Central States, Southeast and Southwest Areas Pension Fund (Teamsters Union Pension Fund). The loan was obtained on November 16, 1964, at six and a half per cent interest.

██████████ advised the loan repayment schedule is set up as follows:

- 62
67D
- 1) For the first 14 months from November, 1964, to December, 1965, payment only of the six and a half per cent interest on the $4,000,000 loan.
 - 2) Starting January 1, 1966, there is to be 14 consecutive semi-annual payments of $180,083.51 applied to interest and principal.
 - 3) Starting January 1, 1966, and for the next 239 consecutive months, payments of $14,920 per month with balance due on 240th payment.

██████████ noted that Alcoholic Beverage Control Commission inquiry as to source of funds for a liquor license goes to the person or institution furnishing the licensee with such funds. In this case the funds to the Rancho La Costa, Inc., are being supplied by the Star Investment Company, which in turn is composed of a partnership.

██████████ advised that a partnership agreement setting up the Star Investment Company was executed January 4, 1961, between IRWIN A. MOLASKY, MERVYN ADELSON, M. B. DALITZ, BERNARD ROTHKOPF, HARRY R. LAHR, all residents of the State of Nevada. The principal place of business in the partnership was to be Las Vegas, Clark County, Nevada, or other place or places as determined. The purpose of the partnership was to engage in the land investment business.

Net profits or losses in accordance with general accounting principals were to be credited or charged to the partners in the following measures:

IRWIN A. MOLASKY 23.750
M. B. DALITZ 23.750
MERVYN ADELSON 35.625
BERNARD ROTHKOPF 11.874
HARRY R. LAHR 5.000

According to [REDACTED] of December 31, 1963, the net income for the Stardust Investment Company and its associate corporation in the 12-month period ending December 31, 1963, was $1,055,064. Liabilities were slightly over $26,000,000 with total liabilities and net worth listed at over $40,000,000.00.

MERVYN ADELSON, IRWIN A. MOLASKY and HARRY R. LAHR are all Las Vegas real estate promoters and builders. They have associated with DALITZ, ALLARD ROEN and other owners of the Desert Inn Hotel in various business ventures in Las Vegas and elsewhere during the past two or three years.

BERNARD ROTHKOPF formerly owned an interest in the Desert Inn Hotel, however, he recently sold this interest and has since moved to California.

[REDACTED] has advised on several occasions during the past several months that the Stardust Hotel property was owned by a group headed by JOHN "JAKE THE BARBER" FACTOR of Los Angeles, California. FACTOR's group leased the hotel and casino to DALITZ and his associates. FACTOR secured a loan from the Teamster Pension Fund in Chicago, Illinois, and with this money, completed an addition to the hotel and also paid off some of his outstanding incumbrances on the hotel. At the same time, FACTOR gave a group headed by SAMUEL TUCKER, MORRIS B. DALITZ and MORRIS KLEINMAN an option to purchase the property when the addition was completed.
